

Curt Woody Bio
Town of Marana

Graduated from the University of Kansas. Have lived in Southern Arizona for 38 years.

Professional career has primarily been in the private sector from development to commercial building industry, and his own company for 15 yrs. During that time, Curt has served on the Board of Directors and Advisory Councils for various organizations from construction to architecture. For the past six+ years, Curt has been with the Town of Marana as the Economic Development Director.

Curt's exposure to economic development began 15 years ago when still in the private sector he joined the statewide economic development organization, AAED (Arizona Association for Economic Development). Curt has served on the Board of Directors for over 10 years and made his way up through the Executive Board to become last year's President. Currently serving as the Immediate Past President and will term off of the Board this spring. Of the many responsibilities in economic development a lot of Curt's attention is with business attraction, business retention & expansion, and workforce development.